From the Crown

Unto the good gentles of these Glorious Outlands do Cyrred II and Morgana send greetings,

We wish to send Our royal congratulations to the autocrats of the Arts and Sciences Collegium; Lady Siobhan, Herr Frideger, and Mistress Liobsynde, all who worked together to produce an entertaining and educational event for this realm. His Majesty would also like to thank Lord Zelph, the Sturdy Beggar for his kind hospitality during the event. In addition, We send Our deepest appreciation to the autocrats of the Academie de Citadel, for hosting a very fun event (remember the royal 'Fun' rule); Vicountess Eirianedd, Master Balldrich, and Lord Ralf, all of your efforts are truly appreciated.

Though Estrella is now far behind us, We wish to congratulate Sir Christoph Gately on being elevated to the Order of Chivalry on the field. His knighting ceremony was one of brightest points at this year's Estrella for many. Also, We wish to thank Ishtara de Airish, of the Waterbearer's Guild, for her organized efforts.

Since before Estrella there has been some concern throughout the Known World involving the SCA at its organizational level. Regardless of your political beliefs, We ask that you remain considerate of your fellow Society members and your own countrymen concerning this matter. There are a great number of people with many different beliefs in the Outlands, yet we have always stood together and have been tolerant of others' ideas and beliefs, though they differ from our own. We ask that you continue to do this during this time of change. We feel certain that the Society, and the Outlands, will survive stronger than ever!

Our thanks and best wishes go to all those who sent letters of intent for Crown Tournament. We look forward to meeting our new heirs with open arms.

In Service to these mighty lands,

Cyrred II — Cyrred

Brigands Bizzare VI

May 27-29

Aedhan and Medhbh...The Next Generation. The saga of the Brigands versus the Merchants once again continues in the Barony of Unser Hafen, on Memorial weekend. Sir Haroun and Lady Dovita have graciously given us many of the toys from Bizarres past (including the bridge). In keeping with previous events, fighting will be random draw with many new scenarios including resurrections.

The site fee is $7.00 per person (1/2 price 8-14) and includes a two night stay on Pawnee-Grasslands. Make checks payable to: SCA–Barony of Unser Hafen. The site opens at 4:00 p.m. Friday night and closes at 4:00 p.m. Sunday.

The feast will be the fine works of Lady Theresea die Tanzerin. The fee is $3.00 per person and every single person must bring a side dish that will feed at least 6 starving fighters. Children under 14 will feast free.

Fires must be contained above ground with the exception of the indoor/outdoor fire pit. Since we share this site with mundane campers, the Forestry Service has asked us to adhere to the following restrictions:

1. Dogs must be leashed at all times and must not be allowed to bark. We are asking gentles not to leave dogs unattended.
2. The site is very wet, has permanent non-flush toilets and lots of running water, However, water cannot be used directly out of the faucets. The water is for all campers, not just the SCA.
3. There will be a 10:00 p.m. noise curfew each night, this includes late arrivals.

These rules are firm, violations could result in your being asked to leave the site.

There will be lots of fighting, lots of prizes and lots of food. Lord Thorfinn Greybeard will be in charge of the target archery.* Lord Tracker will be doing an adult quest after the feast on Saturday. We will also be holding a prize drawing for volunteers.

* All archers who wish to compete in combat must be armored and authorized to fight. Reservations are NOT required.

Directions: Take I-25 to exit 269-A (near Fort Collins). Go east on Highway 14 (past Ault) to mile marker 176, turn left and proceed just short of a 1/4 mile. Turn left again at the reremouse (Bat) crossing sign, which will lead you into the park.

Grand Outlandish XXI

May 25 - 30

Every month this article has been changed. It will be changed next month too, so please read it all the way through. Grand Outlandish has always been fun, and it's going to be fun this year too. We've had a new site twice before, and this will make three. Third new site, twenty-first year; two great numbers.

You know there will be tournaments and melees, and you know there will be shopping. There will also be heraldic consultations, bardic performances, crafts demonstrations and much, much more. Laughter and water will need to be supplied by each person attending, and you'll be glad if you bring rakes and shovels to clean off your camping site. MARK YOUR TOOLS because someone will no doubt want to borrow them.

The daytime will be hot and you'll need to drink water and use a hat or sunscreen. The nights might be cold, and you'll need to plan for that. Bring firewood for your camp if you want a fire. There's some wood on the site, but we won't cut any standing trees (alive or dead). Kragon says if there's deadwood loose and lying on the ground you can use it, but anything which is standing or fastened to the ground in any way is to be left alone.

Pets are welcome but need to be caged or leashed. We are expecting several horses on site throughout the weekend. Remember this is a plague area. Take the appropriate measures to protect your pet's health.

To help insure that you'll enjoy the event, make sure you have enough clothing (cool and warm), food, camp decorations, musical instruments, armor and weapons in good repair, etc. There will be a children's boffer tournament and organized children's activities. Parents and others are welcome to spend some time and assist in the edification of our younger participants.

INTERESTING DETAILS

Fees: Early setup and site preparation (arriving Wednesday or Thursday) $15.00 (members); Grand Outlandish attendance (arriving Friday or Saturday) $10.00 (members); Sunday only attendance $5.00; Children (12 and under) free. We're still discussing how much extra to charge non-members. All minors must be accompanied by a legal guardian (proof required). Site closes at sundown of Monday, May 30

Merchants: Reserved space in the market is $25.00. All merchants must gain the approval of Baron Needham prior to displaying their wares. (Food merchants must obtain a certificate of health from the state of New Mexico. Contact the event coordinator for additional information)

Medieval Tournament

On Sunday morning, the 29th of May, a Most Noble Tournament will be held in the Barony of al-Barran at the Glorious Grand Outlandish! All Royal Peers, Knights, Masters of Arms, Pelicans, Laurels, Barons, Defenders of the Stag's Blood, squires and men at arms are invited to fight in a Grand Melee wearing Crests and accompanied by retainers. Basically, to carry off the Melee (and impress the judges), a standard banner with your arms, tabards for your retainers, and a crest on your helm suitable for combat, are worthy accoutrements. The crest is NOT a target, and it should be as real and historically correct as possible. The effort will be well rewarded as the prizes for this tournament will be truly medieval. For additional information, or to volunteer to help, please call Lord Jalut (303) 665-7796.

Eastern Tournament

Greetings unto all Warriors who travel toward al-Barran! Hrabia Jan w Orzeldom comes with all his dryzyna to Grand Outlandish! All with skill at arms are invited to show their prowess before him there, at a turniej szablowy (sabre tournament) in the style of the hrabia's Mazovian homeland. Any sword wielded in one hand is an appropriate weapon. Second weapons or shields will not be used. The turniej will be fought by torchlight. Come and win fame! The deeds of szampjony (champions) will be sung in far lands; wealth will flow freely to the brave and the fair! The hrabia's men are known for their distinctive tournament style. The call is out for all others with talents at arms to join us in this colorful event. Full details will be available at Grand Outlandish. There will also be more information in the May issue of the Outlandish Herald.

WITH THE HELP OF MODERN SCIENCE AND A PLATOON OF TAVERN WENCHES, GENETIC SAMPLES FROM ONE CLASS OF MALES WERE SECURED.* I THEN PULLED DOWN THEIR GENES TO FORM MY OWN HYPOTHESIS.
DO THESE GENETIC TRAITS APPEAR FAMILIAR? SOMEDAY THEY MAY HAVE A SHOT THEY CAN TAKE!

From the Earl Marshal

Syr Hakon af Jorvik

Our Kingdom fared extremely well at the Estrella War. This is due in great part to the effort put forth by all, in attaining proper membership. This same effort I now ask in order to attain your authorization (green) card. Before you ask to be authorized you should have a blue membership card or the equivalent, a basic understanding of the rules of the list, and have been fighting for at least a month. Also starting this month I have asked the Authorizing Marshals of this Kingdom to do all authorizations at practices and not at an event. This will reduce their workload and end last minute authorizations which can be rushed and less comprehensive than needed.

The following is a list of the Authorizing Marshals warranted until November 1st, 1994:

Lord Mavellic Hayes, Duke Verron, Sir Haroun, Lord Edrick of the Woods, Sir Kragon, Sir Lorin, Jarl Gunwaldt Gulbjörn, Sir Lavin Longwalker, Sir Ian Domhnall, Lord Jalut Gaston de Navarre, THL Llamrei Aethnen, Lord Nasr ibn Yasu, Lord Ambrosious the Grey, Sir Asad ud-Din, Sir Avram, Duke Johann von Balduinseck, Lord Gavin Brangane, Lord Ralph Blackwood.

The Warlord tournament shall be fought on Sunday the 3rd of April with the list opening at 10:00 a.m. and the tourney starting at noon. It will consist of a best two out of three single elimination with weapons of choice for the first round, and a straight double elimination multiple weapon styles randomly picked each round thereafter.

As we move into the tourney season I ask that everyone strive to attain the aims and ideals of chivalry that make this Kingdom an inspiration to so many.

For the glory of the Outlands,
Hakon

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Mistress Liobsynde Belhringere

On March 5th and 6th, the Shire of Windkeep hosted the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium. Approximately 126 people attended the event (71 on board, 55 site only). Saturday was full of wonderful classes. Sunday ran a half day of classes. Due to last minute cancellations, some different classes were available, but they were well attended. One, Sir Mark von dem Falkensfenn's Period Jewelry class, was standing room only. My thanks to those individuals who on very short notice filled in for those classes that had been cancelled:

Lady Drahomera– Medieval Dyes
Sir Mark– Period Jewelry
Sir Titus– Research/Developing a Persona
Master Hagar– Designing and Making Needlework Scrolls
Duchess Jeanne– SCA 101

Other highlights of the weekend included Gwen of Unser Hafen and Lord Zelph of Windkeep making their debut as handbell ringers when they played Song of the Donkey, at the feast; Master Hagar teaching two pavanes, a tourdion, and a wonderful basse danse during the evening; and the edible table decorations provided by Lady Gwen au Caer Blaiddeau and her students. There were also several hands-on and demonstration classes held. At least three of the classes included such presentations. At least five of the instructors were first time teachers at a Kingdom level: Rose, Angelina, Richard, Brother Killian, and Brother Vale. There was an Arts and Sciences display of works by the current Kingdom Champion, Lady Drahomera. In the scriptorium was an informative display on different fonts prepared by Lady Chala as well as the work of many scribes from different parts of the Kingdom.

I wish to thank Lady Siobhan McShihy, the autocrat, and Herr Frideger and his kitchen staff for planning and preparing the site and the feast. I also thank the Shire of Windkeep for their support, and Lady Madeleine de la Rochelle for running the scriptorium. I especially wish to thank those individuals who traveled to the event to teach and to attend classes. Their support and enthusiasm is vital to an event like this.

In Service to the Outlands,
Liobsynde

From the Marshal of Fence

Don Maximillian

Unto the good people of the Outlands does Don Maximillian send greetings!

As of the Estrella War I have taken up the helm as the new Kingdom Rapier Marshall. Please direct all correspondence in the matter of Outlands fencing to me. I would like to thank my esteemed predecessor Don Jean-Eric for his assistance in making this transition and especially for his excellent work in this office.

The duty I was asked to perform first is a general rewrite of the rules for rapier combat in this Kingdom. This will serve to both bring our standards around to the newly published corporate standards and to resolve the questions revolving around the Schlagger blade and its general use. If you, the people who will be using these rules, have any suggestions or questions, please contact me (see p. 2 for address/phone).

I welcome letters, phone calls, and personal contact at events. I will accept phone calls from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. on any day, and I have a machine to take messages when I am not home.

I look forward to hearing from you, the noble fencers of the Outlands.

Maximillian

From the Chronicler

Lady Helena the Fortunate

Greetings all! The warmth of the tourney season is now upon us, and war is long gone, however I would like to thank those persons who assisted this office before, during, and after the Estrella War. My deepest appreciation goes to Lord Christopher Blackwoood, Lucian Ravenscraft, and Roderic the Red, for their help in set up/tear down of the reading room. And for carrying many heavy boxes–Thanks guys! I especially want to thank Lady Gwenlyn Aldwyn, the chronicler of al-Barran, who organized all of the newsletters in the reading room for me, long before Estrella. She also took over as my voice (when mine gave out) during parts of the Chronicler's class at Estrella. Though my cold was getting the best of me, Gwenlyn was a welcome ray of sunshine throughout the entire weekend.

Onto the business of the business. The Calendar. The calendar listed in the front of this newsletter is NOT the planning calendar. It is much shorter, but most of the information comes from the planning calendar. If you want an article in the OH you must send an event registration form to Master Lambert (deputy Kingdom Seneschal). Autocrats need to have articles in, at the very least, for the month the event is scheduled or it will be pulled off of the OH calendar (not the kingdom planning calendar). The difference being that awards from the Crown, or on behalf of the Crown, may not be given out if the event was not properly published in the Kingdom newsletter.

Another item to remember concerning the calendar is that each group is permitted one fully published official event per month in the OH. I realize that without a long-term calendar it is difficult to be aware of events held by other close groups. In order to make the planning less confusing, beginning with the May issue I will publish the planning calendar quarterly, and local seneschals will receive a copy of the planning calendar monthly.

I have been receiving more letters of interest from the populace and I thank you. Keep em' coming! We are still in serious need of original art for both the cover and inside. Please encourage the artists in your area to send their works to the OH. I also would like to put out a call for period recipes, songs, poems, and other written articles of interest to our Society.

There will be a meeting of the Outlands' chroniclers at Coronation. We will be discussing the publication policy and a variety of other topics. If you, as your group's chronicler, cannot make it please ask your deputy to attend. I will post the times in the May issue.

The local newsletters in this Kingdom are gorgeous! Just from looking at the covers you can see the time, effort, and love the chroniclers are putting into their work. If you are enjoying the efforts of your local chronicler, tell them so! Nothing serves as a better inspiration than a kind word, spoken or written. Also, if you are interested in becoming a chronicler at a local or kingdom level, please feel free to contact me with your questions.

With the recent changes of the board members, the Outlands now has a new Ombudsman, Duke John the Bearkiller. Even with our worthy new Ombudsman, you can (and should) always look to your officers (local, Kingdom, and Society), as well as to the peerages for guidance and assistance with your queries.

From the Equestrian Guild

Carolyn Meinl

Greetings all! If you are planning to bring a horse to Grand Outlandish you will need to contact me first (see p.2 for address and phone). All horses must have guild permission to be on site. Also, as there is NO ON-SITE WATER, we are requesting that you arrange to keep your horses, when not in use, at my home. This is not far from the site and it can comfortably accommodate many horses.

If you are an experienced equestrian but are unable to bring your own horse, we would be happy to provide you with the use of one of the many fine al-Barran steeds.

For those of you planning to host an equestrian event in the Outlands, please contact me early. I will be able to assist you with the required insurance and to inform you of mundane, Outlands, and Society laws concerning the event.

If you do not have any local equestrians, but would like to have horses participate in your event, again, please contact me. We still may be able to get several equestrians and their steeds to join in at your event. The guild specializes in giving horse rides and lessons at events, and we have patient, yet proud and willing steeds who can win the hearts of all.

The Equestrian Guild is now offering a trade of assistance for inexperienced riders. If you help us at equestrian events and with the training leading up to the events, we will give you (and your children) free riding lessons and trail rides. Lessons are held at my estate, Rattlesnake Acres. It is situated 30 miles east of al-Barran, with hundreds of square miles of plains and mountain riding where the deer and the antelope (and the Outlands) play.

In Service,
Carolyn

Interkingdom Archery

Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf

The sixteenth and seventh annual shootings of the Interkingdom Archery Competition and the Interkingdom Combat Archery Competitions will start April 1, 1994, and end on a new date, December 1, 1994.

There has been some question if one piece flexible finger type arrow rests are allowed by the rules in the competitions. The answer is yes.

Those archers shooting crossbow in the IKAC must make sure that their score sheet includes: the style of crossbow, and the number of arrows shot in each speed end.

There is a possible change being considered for next year's IKAC. This is the changing of the Traditional Longbow division to a Traditional division, similar to the Cheshire Challenge. This and other possible changes would only be done after soliciting opinions and with a season's warning. Those that do not wish to shoot in the new Traditional division will still be able to shoot in the Open or Crossbow divisions.

In order to encourage the construction of more period equipment, I am trying to locate sources of medieval European style arrowheads: bodkins, broadheads, target points, etc. I wish to compile a list of such suppliers for distribution. If you know of any sources please let me know.

For copies of the IKAC or IKCAC rules, contact your kingdom archery officer (see address on p. 2). For other information, I can be contacted at the following address:

Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf (John R. Edgerton), 7662 Wells Ave., Newark CA 94560-3530, (510) 791–9070. Email: Genie–(T.Edgerton), Internet–sirjon@waffle.sns.com

Out of Kingdom Events

West-Caid War

April 22-24

Welcome gentles all! The war between the West and Caid will soon be upon us. Many events are planned and will include: heavy weapons battles, heavy weapons tourneys, archery, a rapier tournament, a shinai tournament, and arts competitions.

The site is the Putney Ranch Camp, Road 229B, North Fork, California. It is a beautiful campground with 87 acres of rolling hills with trees, showers, some cabins, an impressive Bardic area, and potable water. Fires allowed in pits, braizers or enclosed lanterns only. Please bring a fire extinguisher for each fire. No pets please.

Thoughtful Royal Deeds

Many months ago during the reign of Leif and Elisheva, Her Majesty did a wonderful thing while she, alone, attended Nahrun Kabirun's Rapier Collegium. Many awards were given that weekend, but one man, Cormic Maclean, could not be present to receive his award as he had to leave early to go to work. Since he couldn't receive his due on Saturday, Her Majesty declared that he should receive it the following day at the park.

The event was a success and all gathered the next day in the park. Cormic was present and because of Her Majesty's gag order, he was unaware of his forthcoming Award of Arms. The tourneys went as planned, and Cormic ran the heavy weapons list. Afterwards, Queen Elisheva called for the final court, but alas Cormic had slipped off to ready for work again. Court went as planned, but then her majesty decreed, "...that if Cormic could not come to Us then We shall go to him." Envoys, such as myself, were sent to verify his whereabouts and report back. The royal order for the populace to resume court and muster at Pizza Hut (Cormic's employer) was made, and all readied for the journey.

With Godspeed we arrived before Cormic. Her Majesty and myself arranged with the manager for a few moments of Cormic's time upon his arrival. The incentive of $120.00 worth of business was more than the manager could refuse, and thus the plan came together. Spies advised the Queen of Cormic's arrival and Lord Trenton MacLeod heralded court to order. Her Majesty sat in state at the end of the table. I went to retrieve Cormic who wore the uniform of his livery as he was called to Her Majesty's presence.

After a light hearted lecture about his unavailability, the kneeling Cormic was awarded arms. A great feast was had by all, and a wonderful memory of one of the Outland's greatest Queens was ingrained in the hearts of all who were present.

Seldom have I witnessed, so closely, the love of a Queen for her Kingdom and gentles therein.

Lord Bela Magyar, Esq.

The Outlands at Estrella

Since my arrival in al-Barran last July I have long awaited the opportunity to express my appreciation to the populace of this great Kingdom. The time to do this is no better than with the conclusion of the Estrella War.

The magic that emanated from the Outlands' encampments at Estrella was spectacular. From the knighting of Sir Christoff, and the elevation of Master Lambert to the Order of the Pelican, to the absolutely incredible field battles, and the fabulous drumming and dancing, the presence of the Outlands was stronger than ever.

I would like to share a few small things that will live in my thoughts for a long time. Although she was only trying to make the Outlands Prize Tourney run smoothly, Duchess Berengaria really 'made my day' by allowing me to assist with heralding. I had never attempted to herald in my 12 years of playing, and yet she gave me this opportunity, I loved it, and I thank her for her confidence. Also, many persons made great note to me and others that Lord Teuton was one of the most chivalrous and honorable of fighters at Estrella.

These sorts of efforts and many others like them make me proud to be an Outlander. My family back in Atenveldt had nothing but good things to say about all of the Outlands! You have welcomed me with open arms and I deeply appreciate it. Long live all of you, and the dream of the Outlands!

Lady Jennifer Lovejoy

PRIDE OF THE STAG

The Outlands has fought in wars outside our realm
Traveled far for the sake of our Crown
But oft foreign lands judge us by how we appear
In spite of the Honor we've shown

Chorus
For an Outlanders soul is tied strong to our King
Takes its pride in the strength of the Stag
And to those who may view us as less than we are Beware the approach of our flag

Now some Kingdoms view us as barbaric men
Make light of our dress and our ways
But the drums that they hear beat our dance out tonight will beat out their doom the next day

Now some kingdoms view us as swordsmen for hire to be bought for a silver a day
But the silver does not change an Outlander's pride
We fight for our glory, not pay

Now some Kingdoms view us as nothing to fear for deer are not known to be brave
But when foreign Crowns crumple 'neath antlers and hooves
They'll pray to their gods to be saved

*This song was written by Pendar the Bard, and performed by him during Battle Court, at Estrella.

The kingdom group counts are based on the geographical divisions of the kingdoms. The local group counts are based on my knowledge of each group's boundaries and the growth of the Outlands. As each group petitions for official status, its lands may or may not be explicitly stated in mundane terms (modern boundaries or zip codes). Some divisions are very traditional in nature and others are obvious from the geographical surroundings. The homesteaders are those addresses which fall outside reasonable distances to any group center at all.

Of course, none of these numbers have significant meaning. They are only label counts and not overall population counts. They are only relative indicators of the health of our groups. One can quickly see that our baronies are hale and most of the shires are stable. Even the incipient groups are well informed through the pages of this newsletter.
